Invitation to the 2010 Regional Legislator's Shooting Sports Event

Dear Legislator:

You are cordially invited to attend the third annual Regional Legislator's Shooting Sports Event to be held on Friday, May 20th, 2011, at the North Leominster Rod and Gun Club, hosted by Massachusetts Senator Jennifer Flanagan (D-Leominster)

Sponsored by the Gun Owners' Action League (GOAL), National Shooting Sports Foundation (NSSF) – the trade association of the firearms and ammunition industry – and the National Rifle Association (NRA), this event will be a fun filled day celebrating the second amendment for first timers and experienced shooters alike.

Below you will find more information concerning logistics for the event.

Who Should Attend: The 2011 Regional Legislator's Shooting Sports Event is open to all legislators, staff, family and friends. This will provide many first-timers the opportunity to learn about, and take part in, the shooting sports and enjoy the outdoors in a safe and educational environment. If you have always been interested in the shooting sports this is the perfect chance to learn from professionals.

Why Attend: Attending the 2011 Regional Legislator's Shooting Sports Event is a great opportunity for the first timer to get instruction on proper handling and shooting techniques. It is also a great opportunity for experienced firearm enthusiasts to sharpen their skills and perhaps earn some bragging rights. This event will also offer legislators and staff from Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New Hampshire, Connecticut and Vermont a chance to interact and socialize with each other outside of the pressure filled state capitols.
